The battle for Verdun, now well in its fourth week, continues with intensity, but at present the infantry is held in leash while the big guns prepare for further assaults.

The powerful German thrust west of the Meuse which developed early this week was halted when it reached the southern edge of Avoncourt wood. But the activity of the German artillery in this sector, which Paris reports today particularly violent, indicates that the German intention probably is to make further determined attempts to advance this important flanking operation.

The situation on the eastern bank of the Meuse is unchanged but here too the artillery fire continues intense, particularly near Vaux and Damloop.

Russian warships are reported active in the Black sea where the 7000 ton German steamer Esperanza, said to be loaded with foodstuffs, has been sunk off the Rumanian coast, according to advices from Bucharest. Sinking of a score of small sailing ships also is reported.

Unofficial advices from Rome today report abandonment of Czernowitz, capital of Bukowina by the Austrians. There has been hard fighting recently along the line of the Dniester in Galicia northwest of Czernowitz and yesterday the Vienna war office admitted the evacuation of the Austrian bridgehead at Uszeczecko under Russian pressure.
The Austrians fell back down the river to Zale Szczycyki, about thirty miles north of Czernowitz.

The Russians are continuing their westward advance in Turkish Armenia, and it was reported today that the Turks are evacuating Erzian, a fortress more than 100 miles west of Erzurum, which has been indicated as an objective of the Russians.

According to Berlin, the Russians are not meeting with any success in their offensive against the German lines along the Dvina. Both the Russian movement in the north and in Galicia have been pointed to by military observers as counter-offensives probably calculated to relieve the pressure on Verdun.

INFANTRY IDLE
AT VERDUN; HEAVY ARTILLERY FIRE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paris, March 22.—No infantry attacks were made on the Verdun front last night, the war office announced this afternoon. The Germans bombarded Malancourt heavily and there were artillery exchanges of less intensity east of the Meuse.

mother averaged one quilt each week during the past 50 years and that they have been distributed among the United States. Mrs. Bailey was born in Manchester, England.

COUSIN OF LINCOLN'S DIES.
Fort Branch, Ind., March 22.—Elijah Lincoln, a second cousin of here yesterday at the age of 84. He often expressed regret that he had Lincoln was a veteran of the civil war and previous to that participated in the Pike's Peak (Col.) gold

San Antonio, March 22.—One of the aviators missing from the squadron that went to join General Pershing's column, descended somewhere south of Casas Grandes, it was learned at General Funston's headquarters today. His name was not given.

Farther reports had indicated that both men came down somewhere along the line of communication between the border line and Casas Grandes, General Pershing's advanced base of operations.

Reports today explained that one recently Casas Grandes and was sent south over the country in which the three detachments of cavalry are operating. No details relative to his disappearance were received.

General Pershing's failure to report an encounter of his troops with those of Francisco Villa and the absence of news from Mexican so far relative to the outcome of the fighting between Villa's men and Carranza's troops in the vicinity of Nam-iquipa caused army officers at Fort Sam
Houston today to believe the elusive
Villa had escaped.

The fate of Lieutenant Edward J.
Gorell and Robert H. Willis, Jr., who failed to reach Casas Grandes was still unknown today.

No time will be lost in the dispatch of the twenty-fourth infantry and the fifth cavalry ordered to the border yesterday. Both should reach Columbus before the end of the week and it is the intention of General Funston to send them into Mexico immediately.

Telegraph Lines Are Cut by Villa Raiders.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, N. H., March 22.—Wireless communication with the advanced base of the American expedi-tory force at Casas Grandes was restored today. Several messages, all in code, were received, but none gave word of the two missing lieutenants of the army aero corps. Search for the missing men is being continued.

Not a single case of illness has been reported among the American troops with General Pershing's expeditionary column in Mexico. Lieutenant Colonel Frick, in charge of the base hospital here, asserted today. Army medical officers consider this remarkable in view of the heat, the sandstorms of the desert, and the diseases which was followed in the wake of four years of civil war in Mexico to all of which the soldiers have been exposed in their march. It was asserted that much credit is due the preventive measures adopted before the start of the expeditionary force.

WEATHER FORECAST

Snow and colder tonight with a cold wave and north gales. Thursday fair except snow flurries. Continued cold.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, March 22.—Heavy rains last night caused rivers and creeks in Central Ohio to become bank full. However the weather bureau announced that there is no danger of a repetition of the 1913 floods, which broke just three years ago this time.

The greatest rainfall in the state was at Granville, Licking county, where 1.46 inches of rain fell.
Zanesville recorded 1.32 inches and Columbus .88 inches. The average for Central Ohio was 1.25 inches.
The storm was accompanied by thunder and lightning.

The weather bureau announced that the Scioto river at Columbus before would reach the 17-foot stage late today. This formerly was the flood stage, but since the 1913 flood the levees have been raised to 21 feet.

At Zanesville the Licking River was bank full. The Muskingum suffered only a slight rise and it was reported that there is no danger of a flood unless the rains continue.

Telephone and telegraph communication suffered from the storm, and traction and railroad transportation was interfered with.

At noon today, the heavy rains of last night began again in Columbus.
The overhanging clouds made it so dark for a time that street lights were turned on and the police were ordered to instruct autoists to light their lamps.

Following the example of city authorities in turning on street lights, Mike Reilly, state electrician, illuminated the state house dome which lights the capitol square.

ONE MAN DEAD.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Logansport, Ind., March 22.—Reports received early today from the northern Indiana districts which were swept by a tornado last night show that four persons were killed, probably twenty persons injured and many thousands of dollars damage done. The storm, which did not last more than ten minutes, swept across this city in a narrow path. In the business district roofs were torn off, windows broken and trees uprooted.

Trees falling across telegraph and telephone wires carried them to the ground and severed wire communication. Street car traffic was brought to a standstill by debris heaped on the tracks and carrying away of electric light wires left the city in darkness.

The roof of a broom factory was blown off and crashed against the home of Benjamin Ricketts, killing W. J. Ricketts and injuring other members of the family.

An unidentified woman was brought to this city from Trimble, Ind., where she had been severely crushed.

A number of persons were hurt
when the high wind blew three cars of Cloverleaf passenger train No. 5 from the tracks near Marion. It was reported that no one was seriously injured in this wreck.

The dead are:
Gertrude Alsop, aged 4, near Montpelier.
James Rector, Monon.

Silas Williams, 71, near Jalapa.
Milo Ricketts, 16, at Logansport.

SLEET IN CHICAGO.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Chicago, March 22.—A sleet storm today followed the rain and thunderstorm which caused considerable damage to electric light and telephone wires throughout the city last night. Whole streets and sections of the city were left in darkness but little property damage was done. One or two small fires started by the damage was slight.

Reports from the northwestern part of Illinois, in the vicinity of Kankakee and Beaverville and from Marion and Logansport, Ind., told of a tornado, which caused the loss of one life, injury to a number of persons and heavy property damage.
Telegraph and telephone wires were down and communication with outlying points was cut off.

DETECTIVES NAB SEVEN SAFE BLOWERS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Cleveland, March 22.—Detectives in two early morning raids on two East 30th street houses today captured seven men, who, they say, are members of a New York gang of safe blowers.

Four grips filled with safe opening tools, dynamite, caps, fuses, nitro-glycerine and electric wiring apparatus were confiscated.

The rands were made by a squad of detectives headed by Mathew J.
Farrell, night chief of the detective bureau.

Four men were captured in the first raid and three in the second. The men were captured in their beds, at revolver points.

Farrell said one of the men had a code book in cipher and another a book containing the addresses of Euclid avenue jewelers.

FANNED BY HIGH WIND, FIRE RAGED

CITY OF PARIS, TEXAS, SUFFERS LOSS OF TWO MILLIONS OR MORE EARLY TODAY.

Ten Thousand Homeless and Half That Number Were Without Food This Morning.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Paris, Texas, March 22.—With approximately 10,000 persons homeless, the entire business section wiped out and from 1500 to 2000 dwellings destroyed, the fire which started late yesterday afternoon still was burning early today. The property loss, it is estimated, will reach $3,500,000.

Reports were circulated that from 10 to 30 persons had lost their lives. Confirmation, however, was lacking.

Thousands of homeless men, women and children were being cared for today in private residences, railway stations and the few remaining public buildings. Food supplies will be the most serious problem every hotel, restaurant and grocery in the city having been wiped out. In all about thirty blocks were destroyed.

The wind, which was blowing a gale when the fire started, shifted at daylight and the fire was slowly traveling in a southerly direction, spreading the flames throughout the southern residence district, but in a freakish manner jumping whole blocks in its progress.

Fire fighting apparatus from Dallas, Greenville and other nearby cities assisted the local department in bringing the flames under control.

In less than two hours after the fire started it had laid waste to a section extending from Eighteenth to Twenty-fifth streets in width, and along several blocks of the Texas & Pacific right of way, burning several of the most costly residences, the Episcopal church, the Congregational church and First Baptist church, several apartment houses, the Gibraltar hotel and many other structures.

With nothing to check its progress, the fire reaching the city square, rapidly entered the business district proper. At 9:30 p. m. there were no signs of checking the flames and fire fighting apparatus began to arrive from Dallas, Sherman, Greenville, and Bonham, Tex., and Hugo, Okla.

Toward midnight the wind died down and the fire began to subside somewhat because there was no further material to feed the flames.

Practically every building on either side of the square in the heart of the business center was destroyed.

The Paris water supply is drawn from a storage lake six miles west of town and is pumped by electrical driven engines. The electric power plant having been consumed early in the evening and all telephone wires put out of commission, there was no means of notifying the engineer at the storage lake to start the emergency pumps. The central fire station also had been burned, together with most of the city's fire hose.

With the outside assistance at work and only a slight wind prevailing, shortly after one o'clock the fire was considered practically under control.

The suffering among the homeless during the night was not believed to have been severe, as the weather was mild. It is believed, however, suffering from hunger will become acute later in the day and outside aid will become imperative. No appeal for aid had been sent out early today. The question of succoring the homeless and destitute will be the first thing considered. It is understood Governor James E. Ferguson is ready to render state aid promptly if requested.

"WE NEED GROCERIES."

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Dallas, Texas, March 22.—Fully 10,000 persons are homeless and half that number went without breakfast this morning as a result of last night's fire, according to a telegram received here today from County Judge Thomas L. Beauchamp, of Paris, Texas.

The telegram adds:

"We need groceries and money to day."

MILLION DOLLAR FIRE NEAR TULSA IN OIL FIELDS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Tulsa, Okla., March 22.—Damage estimated at more than one million dollars was done in the oil fields near Drumright last night, when a fire starting in a pile of refuse spread to the wells. Twelve wells are burning, twenty-four derricks had been destroyed, and many thousands of barrels of oil in tanks were consumed by the flames. Oilmen tonight feared that the loss would extend into many millions of dollars.

NO DANGER

Western (Cloverleaf) railroad blown from the track near that city late last night. Several persons were injured but none was killed. Four cars were overturned.

Five houses were destroyed at Pittsville, Ill., and ten demolished at Kankakee, Ill., Beaverville, Ill., and Morocco, Ind., were said to have suffered some damage.

SLUSH IN CLEVELAND.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Cleveland, March 22.—Cleveland and suburbs were ploughing today in slush and mud almost ankle deep, and automobiles were leaving great wakes in city streets.

The unusual spell of weather is said to have been a sideswipe from a tornado that swept portions of Illinois and Ohio that left a trail of destruction.

The storm here was accompanied by a thunder and lightning, rain, snow and sleet all at the same time.

The Big Four railroad here reports wires are down in many places. Bellefontaine is completely shut off and the extent of the damage there is unknown.

LIGHTNING FIRES BARN.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Toledo, March 22.—Lightning which accompanied last night's snow and sleet storm, struck a large barn on the East Side shortly after midnight, destroying the structure and killing a horse, cow and several pigs. Loss was estimated at $1100.

The sudden snow caught the street car companies unprepared and hundreds of workers were late to their offices this morning.

Railroad schedules are seriously hampered and telegraph wires are down, especially west of the city, on the Cloverleaf and Wabash railroads.

Slush a half foot deep covers the downtown streets. The outlying sections of the city are in bad condition.

A gale, varying in velocity from 35 to 50 miles an hour, accompanied the storm. Thus far no serious accidents have been reported.

RESEMBLED CLOUDBURST.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Zanesville, O., March 22.—Today, the anniversary of the beginning of the 1913 flood, was ushered in by a brilliant electrical storm and a downpour of rain that resembled a cloudburst. The hours rainfall was 1.32 inches, the heaviest in years, and the Licking river, an eccentric stream is bankfull. The rise in the Muskingum was only slight and there is no danger of a flood unless the rain should continue several hours.

CHILD IS KILLED.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Hartford City, Ind., March 22.—Gertrude Alspach, four-year-old daughter of a farmer living near Montpelier, north of here, was killed by the tornado which swept the northern section of Blackford county early today. Four other members of the family were severely injured, according to the meagre report received here. The property damage was estimated at $100,000 in the county.

SPRING STORM VISITED CITY EARLY TODAY

Newark and vicinity was visited by a heavy rain storm, accompanied by thunder and lightning early this morning. The rain began falling just before midnight and continued for several hours.

Between 12 and 2 o'clock there was a heavy precipitation, in fact it came down in sheets and the streets were soon flooded. There was a great deal of thunder and much lightning, a regular spring thunder rain storm.

While awaiting the summons of the overalls, Wakefield told the story of his life, including his two prison sentences, his several trips abroad, his residence in England, the tragic death of his mother in Detroit, the tragic death of his brother in a morgue until his arrest in Chicago, his mind was in a haze, he evered.

"My mother's death was due to me," said Wakefield. "On me was the responsibility. I could not rise above the calamity."

Wakefield said he was the son of Lucius H. Wakefield, judge of the first district, county of Middlesex, Massachusetts, and that the progenitor of the family, John Wakefield, came to America in 1630. The family history, he said, could be traced back to William the Conqueror, the first "Wakefield" having come from Normandy in 1066.

"I had several indulgent aunts and was a spoiled child," said Wakefield.

Wakefield then told of his various financial and social adventures. Only he didn't call them adventures—he maintains that he isn't an adventurer, but a bona fide financial expert and Bureau Brummel extraordinary, with a gift of the gab and a penchant for writing odes.

He described his first deal, a copper company. For this he was indicted in Boston and the New York newspapers wrote funny stories about the young man of good family who wanted to startle the world with his fancy financial juggling.

The New York Herald reporter, for instance, quite got Wakefield's "goat." Wakefield hasn't forgiven him yet. It seems that while Wakefield was reposing or posing indignantly behind the bars of a common jail, the reporter with a photographic camera to interview and "mug" him.

There was nothing doing, Wakefield, who was 21 at the time, hauled the newspaper man. So the newspaper man sat down and wrote a lengthy humorous yarn about Wakefield, who had tried to start a $20,000 copper company of four shares of stock worth $10 a share, in defiance of the blue sky laws of the state of Massachusetts. Wakefield had just returned from the Philippines when he was arrested, and then the writer showed how, with $40 capital, such a fancy financier as Wakefield would start a rabbit farm there which in three years, by a process of multiplication as plain as a barn door he would realize $15,000,000 or some such little sum as that. A number of people reading the story carelessly, thought that Wakefield actually did try his hand at rabbit farming, and the story has stuck ever since, and Wakefield says dejectedly that he can't lose it.

GREEKS OVERFLOW.
Hebron, March 22.—The small creek in this vicinity has overflowed its banks and the runs between here and Kirker'sville are raging little streams. Fields between the two places are flooded and unless the crest is reached farmers may suffer from fences and small buildings being swept away.

Baltimore & Ohio Engineer Jess Stroud, who has been working at Cambridge for the past several weeks, visited his family here, Tuesday.

Last Report.
A Scotch minister in need of funds thus conveyed his intentions to his congregation.

"Weel, friends, the kirk is urgent- ly in need of siller, and as we have failed to get money honestly we will have to see what a bazaar can do for us."—Tit-Bits.

WAKEFIELD IN OVERALLS, IS AT WORK

FORMER NEWARK MAN DASHES OFF "POMPEY" ON A TIMELY THEME.

To Some Local Business Men the Ode Is Significant—Little Early History.

(Special to the Advocate.)

Detroit, Mich., March 22.—W. Curtis Wakefield, "dive uplifter," went to work today. In overall and jumper this son of one of the oldest families in the country, associate of members of the British peerage, friend of men high in public life (including Governor Ferris), labored in the uplift of the new municipal building just across the street from Wayne county jail, where he has been for many days.

The American Civic Institute, with its numerous secretaries, having crashed about the ears of the cosmopolitan, he faced from two and a half to five years in Jackson prison for obtaining money under false pretenses. Wakefield's friends did not desert him, however, and they pleaded that the community expert be given a chance to make good.

Judge Jeffries held that callous-producing labor, rather than a soft job, was the proper cure. Wakefield was placed on parole accordingly, and after six months, he shows up with palms hardened properly and a clean record. It will be held that he has discharged his obligation to the state.

Nor did Wakefield offer any objection. Instead, he betrayed an eagerness to grasp the handles of a wheelbarrow as though they were the lifts of opportunity. Burning with the fire of his determination, he seized his typewriter and dasher off this ode to labor:

"Work, work, work,
That's the lesson Time teaches man:
Work, work, work.
To win what you honestly can,
In your course through the work
where temptations are rife.
Be firm and courageous, abreast with the strife,
And success will be yours in the struggle with life,
If you work, work, work.
Work, work, work.
There's no time to linger and sigh:
work, work, work.
Wherever your tasks may lie,
Work, work, work.
Improving the moments that fly,
You can pass many others in life's great race,
Attain a commendable, nobler place,
If the task now at hand you unflinchingly face.

To many Newark business men the ode is significant. They are able to testify, they say, to the fact that while in Newark in connection with the Newark Board of Trade, Wakefield worked. In fact, he worked so much that it is sad the high of him at work on any kind of a building in Newark city would attract a crowd of interested men.

While awaiting the summons of the overalls, Wakefield told the story of his life, including his two prison sentences, his several trips abroad, his residence in England, the tragic death of his mother in Detroit, the tragic death of his brother in a morgue until his arrest in Chicago, his mind was in a haze, he evered.

"My mother's death was due to me," said Wakefield. "On me was the responsibility. I could not rise above the calamity."

Wakefield then told of his various financial and social adventures. Only he didn't call them adventures—he maintains that he isn't an adventurer, but a bona fide financial expert and Bureau Brummel extraordinary, with a gift of the gab and a penchant for writing odes.

He described his first deal, a copper company. For this he was indicted in Boston and the New York newspapers wrote funny stories about the young man of good family who wanted to startle the world with his fancy financial juggling.

The New York Herald reporter, for instance, quite got Wakefield's "goat." Wakefield hasn't forgiven him yet. It seems that while Wakefield was reposing or posing indignantly behind the bars of a common jail, the reporter with a photographic camera to interview and "mug" him.

There was nothing doing, Wakefield, who was 21 at the time, hauled the newspaper man. So the newspaper man sat down and wrote a lengthy humorous yarn about Wakefield, who had tried to start a $20,000 copper company of four shares of stock worth $10 a share, in defiance of the blue sky laws of the state of Massachusetts. Wakefield had just returned from the Philippines when he was arrested, and then the writer showed how, with $40 capital, such a fancy financier as Wakefield would start a rabbit farm there which in three years, by a process of multiplication as plain as a barn door he would realize $15,000,000 or some such little sum as that. A number of people reading the story carelessly, thought that Wakefield actually did try his hand at rabbit farming, and the story has stuck ever since, and Wakefield says dejectedly that he can't lose it.

Love and the Drama.
A periodical devoted to the drama pleads for plays based on some emotion other than love. The difficulty in producing such plays is that every play must have a hero, and in making a hero the playwright as well as his audience almost inevitably adopts the view expressed 2,000 years ago by a scribbler on one of the dead walls of Pompeii, "He who has never loved a woman is not a gentleman."—Exchange.

United States 'U.SCO' Tread

The Long-Sought-For 'Balanced' Tires

We have actually produced the long-sought-for 'balanced' tires.

The instant success of our popular priced 'U.SCO' Tread is a striking example of the automobile owners' immediate recognition of our 'balanced' tires.

There are three big, exclusive reasons why the 'balanced' tire is the 100 per cent. efficient tire.

- 1 Because the rubber tread is 'balanced'—that is, the tread has just the exact 'balance' between resiliency and toughness, which produces the greatest possible efficiency in the whole tread.
- 2 Because the fabric carcass is 'balanced'—that is, the carcass has complete 'balance' between flexibility which gives easy riding, and strength which gives endurance.
- 3 Because the whole tire is 'balanced'—that is, the rubber tread and fabric carcass are in such complete 'balance' as to give equal wear—both tread and carcass are equally strong.

It is this three-fold 'balance' that sets the five United States Individualized Tires in a class apart.

Since our 'balanced' tires began to be 'felt on the market' last fall, the sales of United States Tires have increased steadily month by month up to the recent highest increase of 354 per cent.

RICKETT TO GET HEARING NEXT FRIDAY

PLEADS NOT GUILTY TO CHARGE OF TAKING B. & O. RELIEF CHECKS.

Police Chase Missing Checks With Aggregate $500—Rickett Retains Atty. J. F. Lingafelter

Claude M. Rickett, Baltimore & Ohio freight engineer, arrested early Tuesday morning by Detective J. D. Sullivan and Chief of Police James S. Sheridan, on a charge of forgery was arraigned before Mayor Bigbee this morning, and pleaded not guilty. He was represented by Attorney James F. Lingafelter.

The court room at the city prison was crowded to its capacity when Mayor Bigbee called police court to order. The crowd, nearly all employees of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad company, was interested in the Rickett case.

The mayor read one affidavit charging forgery preferred by James P. Murphy, West Main street grocer, and to this Rickett entered a plea of not guilty. The reading of a second affidavit was waived by council for the defense and a plea of not guilty entered.

Rickett's bond in each case was placed at $300 and his hearing set for Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The railroad company will be represented by Attorneys Kibler and Kibler.

Captain F. R. Castor, of the local railroad police division, said this morning that the amount of the checks missing would probably aggregate $500. The police are still searching for some of the checks said to have been passed.

SAVE YOUR WASTE PAPER AND RAGS; THEY ARE NEEDED

There is a serious shortage of raw material for the manufacture of paper, including rags and old papers. The collecting and saving of rags and old papers would greatly better existing conditions for American manufacturers.

Something like 15,000 tons of different kinds of paper and paper board are manufactured every day in the United States and a large proportion of this, after it has served its purpose, could be used over again in some class of paper. A large part of it, however, is either burned or otherwise wasted. This, of course, has to be replaced by new materials.

In the early history of the paper industry publicity was given to the importance of saving rags. It is of scarcely less importance now. A little attention to the saving of rags and old papers will mean genuine relief to our paper industry and a diminishing drain upon our sources of supply for new materials. This matter has been deemed to be of such importance that Secretary of Commerce Redfield has issued a special bulletin urging people to save rags and old paper.

COLE YOUNGER, OUTLAW, DIES A CHRISTIAN

FAMOUS BORDER OUTLAW SUGGESTS TO LINGERING ILLNESS IN MISSOURI HOME.

Was Member of James Band of Outlaws and Served Sentences for Minnesota Robbery.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Lees Summit, Mo., March 22.—Cole Younger, famous outlaw of border days but of late years a devout church attendant and peaceful citizen, died at his home here last night after a lingering illness. He was 72 years of age and unmarried.

Younger was one of the last of the members of the notorious robber bands that infested western Missouri during and after the civil war. He was a member of the Quantrell band of guerrillas and, with his two brothers, took part with the "James boys" in bank and train robberies in Missouri and neighboring states that netted the looters more than $100,000. Younger, after a long term in the penitentiary, became a law-abiding Missouri citizen.

Colonel Younger, his father, was murdered by one of the bands of lawless guerrillas that infested the Missouri-Kansas border in war times.

The sons said their father was slain by Kansans for the purpose of robbery. They immediately took up arms against the north.

When the war was over they and the Jameses became outlaws. The three Younger brothers were captured in Minnesota after a raid on a bank at Northfield, Minn., in 1876, in the course of which Cashier Haywood was killed. The Youngers were shot many times in battles with a posse but finally were taken alive after a battle at Shieldsburg, Minn.

Cole and his brothers pleaded guilty and were sentenced to prisons for life. They entered the penitentiary at Stillwater, Miss., and became model prisoners. Bob died in 1901. Younger was paroled in 1901. The next year James shot himself, leaving a note ascribing his action to a refusal of the parole board to permit him to marry the girl he loved.

In August, 1913, Younger was converted to religion at a revival meeting and became an active church worker.

"I've led an adventurous, turbulent life," he said. "The war brought on hate and strife and killing around here. I have been blamed for a lot of it with which I had nothing to do. They murdered my father and I was launched into a life of shooting and reprisals and rough riding, winding up with 25 years in the penitentiary. Now I'm an old man and I've come by God's mercy back to the place of my childhood to end my day."

Theatres

Alhambra Tonight and Tomorrow. World Film Corporation presents the five-part photoplay "The Rack," based on the great William A. Brady stage success of the same name.

Blanche Gorden, impersonated in the photoplay by Miss Brady, is an indiscreet young lady. She is married, but she flirts with men. One of them, a disreputable admirer, inveigles her to a roadhouse of questionable character and there makes ardent love to her. He is mysteriously shot dead, and Blanche is accused of, and tried for, the murder. The tortured girl confesses that she shot the man in defense of her honor. She is about to be sentenced, when the real murderer, who is secretly present in court, comes forward and avows himself guilty of the crime.

"The Rack" will be exhibited at the Alhambra Theatre tonight and tomorrow.

"The Lilac Domino." Andreas Duppel presents "The Lilac Domino" at the Auditorium Tuesday, March 28. This production is conceded to be the most elaborate and altogether charming musical entertainment of many seasons. It is superlatively bright, breezy and clean, with a magnetic attraction for all ranks of society. In New York, Boston and Chicago, prominent leaders of society engaged boxes for the entire engagement last season, and theatre parties were of nightly occurrence. It has been said that the costumes are a fashion show in themselves, being up-to-the-minute in style and magnificent in quality. There is a great dancing exhibit, the whole gamut being run from the Russian ballet to the modern society steps. In fact every approved and tested element of musical production has been included in this one stupendous production; yet no feature is allowed such prominence as to detract from the exquisite score and the genuine musical excellence of the piece. No music lover can afford to miss it and no lover of brisk mirth provoking comedy will.

Story of Forbidden Fruit.

When Ruth Austerer called on Edward Hemingway, her fiance, and found him in the arms of Dolly Rivers, a cabaret performer, she broke their engagement. Shortly thereafter Ruth became the wife of Edward's friend and broker, Henry Sturt.

So two years pass. Edward has renewed his life of unrestrained dissipation, whilst Henry is the proud father of Emily. Wall Street speculation spells ruin for Henry and in order to avoid it he forges Edward's name to a stock certificate in his custody.

Edward learning of his friend's crime determines that the time has come for him to revenge himself for the loss of Ruth. In desperation at her husband's imprisonment, Ruth appeals to Edward for mercy. He agrees to withdraw the forgery charges if she will make the supreme sacrifice.

Shortly after Henry's release, a child, Walter, has been born to his wife, and now at the age of four the boy develops lung trouble.

When Dolly has gone, Henry accuses his wife. A terrible scene follows which culminates in the departure of Ruth and Walter from their home.

Little Emily, inconsolable at the loss of her mother and brother, steals away, determined to find her "mama," and becomes lost in the great city. Henry, frantic at the loss of the last thing on earth dear to him hurries to the station house and finds his child. Emily wants only her "mama" and refuses to go with her father until he promises she will see her mother. At the Mazda.

ESTABLISHED IN 1852

 Newark, Ohio, under Act of March 3, 1879.

The threat of war may deal a terrific blow to American business, but it won't affect the ball games.

It is surprising how much leveller a spring hat looks when you find that it costs $20.00 instead of $5.00.

There is much satisfaction in some quarters that the United States has now acquired a little war all its very own.

It is not expected that Carranza will have to pursue any bandits into American territory except sleeping car porters.

The Bandit Hunt In Mexico.

The situation along the Mexican border is in the lap of the gods as the old saying goes. It may mean either life or death. If Villa could be put out of the way, the restless Mexicans will not rest for Uncle Sam they have not known since the invasion of 1847. But meanwhile our expeditionary forces are hunting for vermin with a lighted match in a dark powder magazine. Let's keep the sparks out of the Mexican temperament?

Long experience with the red Indians and the Filipino has made our army in no familiar with the same. The mountains of Sonora and Chihuahua will have to be passed with a fine tooth comb. Villa and his men won't live indefinitely on root and bark and must come out from cover.

Our people will have to pay the price. In a point battle, the losses against the训练 and mounted Mexican would never be heavy. It used to be said, while Huerta and Villa were fighting, that after a battle the men would play cards instead of preparing for the morrow's engagement.

But long years through rough mountain country will bring its sad toll of our boys. Every tree and stone is likely to be the lurking place of death. Our men, however, are cool and brave. They will play the game as cleverly as it was ever played by the wily old Sioux or Iroquois. The Mexicans are hot headed and will throw their lives away on impulse.

Finston and Pershing have a task that is quite as much diplomatic and political as military. If they can only make the Mexicans see it, their prosperity is dependent on putting Butcher Villa out of the way. A golden store of American money and an electrical current of human energy are ready to pour into this fertile land when the ruffian and the assassin have been put down. The expedition will tell the Mexicans a few things about Uncle Sam that the present generation never knew before.

Similarly with the wife. If she does her own work, she is tired; if

Rippling Rhymes

Learning the Auto. I'm learning the automobile; as trembling, I sit at the wheel, and steer her along, through the burring thong, how nervous and awkward I feel! I bolt people out of their lids. I run over chickens and kids—a spurt she will throw when I want to go slow, she scampers, shudders and skids. I sweat, and I'm weak in the knees, when swift around corners she flies, she whimpers and chirs, and she gurgles and purrs, and runs into fences and trees. My courage she constantly drags by running down bow-wows, and tramps; she collided today with a big heavy dray, and basted her fenders and lamps. I drive her around for an hour, this engine of terrible power; whenever I stray, on my death-dealing way, of feathers and for there's a shower. At night, when I go to my bed, fierce nightmares abide in my head; I dream my new truck is just running amuck, and leaving a windowful of dead, I run over chickens and goats, I run over roosters and shotes; and oft, in my dream, do I rancuously scream, "My auto is feeling her oats!"

Yet this town, with its vivid recollection of battle in the streets and campaigning in the suburbs, elaborately celebrated the arrangements between the United States and Mexico for the arrest of Villa. In street parade and fiesta "Tio Sam" was honored; in formal speeches President Wilson was praised, his good faith and that of his nation frankly accepted.

High Tide in Business.

(New York Herald.) The country's production of iron at present exceeds 107,000 tons a day, nearly double what it was a year ago. That tells the story of industrial conditions.

Railway earnings and bank clearings are both about one-half larger than a year ago, reflecting the great expansion in traffic and in domestic trade.

Exports of leadstuffs recently have somewhat decreased, but this is more than offset by increased exports of munitions and other manufactures.

Oil exports in the last six or seven months have exceeded imports by a billion dollars.

Statistics are disturbed by the average leader, but every one must be satisfied by the figures which indicate the up-slosh and rising tide in the country's industrial and business prosperity.

Lorimer Finance.

(Buffalo Express.) How to Start a Bank Without a Cent would be a good title, apparently for the story of the trial of Billy Lorimer, which is on in Chicago now. This is the Lorimer who was expelled from the United States Senate. According to the prosecution, he and his friends started the La Salle Street Trust and Savings Bank of a "c. for $1,250,000. For this they received a cashier's check obtained cash from another trust company. This was the capital which the bank examiner counted and approved. Not a cent of it had been paid in. It is said that Lorimer will plead in defense against the conspiracy and libelment charge, while he was president of the bank, he was away most of the time and left the work to Munday, who was involved in similar charges some time ago. He shouldn't be surprised, as he was not attending to his job. Lorimer has a sense of humor, what?

A fellow sometimes gets almost as great a shock when he opens a telegram as when he opens a jacket.

Cheer up! Singing is on the way, the time when even ice will have some difficulty in making itself solid.

There is generally more excitement in one big picture film than an average man meets with in his whole life.

Life is full of vain regrets," said the Wise Guy. "So is the end of a check book," added the Simple Mug.

You never can tell. Even the young man who learns to say no doesn't always have greatness thrust upon him.

Everyone a Top-Notcher.

Another pathetic little feature of everyday life is the way so many of the 102,000,000 persons who now constitute our population feel their own individual importance.

Lots of things are more ornamental than useful, including some education.

Occasionally a man may profit by his own mistakes, but it's a poor way to get rich.

Smile—"Father says you mustn't smile any more." Billy—"All right, I'll turn out the gas."

It is hard for a man to pay duty on imported goods without thinking he is a slave to custom.

When the hunched man travels, passes up the places that advertise all the comforts of home.

Our Boys and Girls

The new mother should have pleasant exercise, out of door life, pleasure, cheerful society and be surrounded as far as possible with the things that interest her. She should strive to have at least eight hours of sleep at night, and if her rest is broken, to make it up during the day when the baby is asleep. Plenty of fresh air and sunshine are always desirable.

After the baby's birth the mother is very apt for a time to feel weary and weak and the effect is felt in less milk for the child so that many give up nursing entirely. This is a mistake for the strain of this period is relieved more day by day as mother and babe gradually become adjusted; her health revives and slowly but certainly things will grow more comfortable and with this will come the milk. So if the mother will only strive to carry herself and the babe past this epoch she will, in all likelihood, be able to nurse successfully.

A SPRING NOVELTY.

This is one of the very newest sport suits—a saffron colored silk jersey cut on beautiful lines. The skirt closes down the front with big brown novelty buttons, as does the single breasted loose coat. Please notice how smart are the collar and cuffs of brown glazed leather, which is also used to face the slit pockets. The string belt is another interesting feature. With this elegant outfit goes a brown clip sailor simply trimmed with a soft bow and band of satin ribbon. The whole design speaks of simple elegance.

To Build Up— After Grippe, Colds —Bad Blood

Take a blood cleanser and alterative that starts the liver and stomach into vigorous action, called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery because of one of its principal ingredients—the Golden Seal plant. It sets the body to manufacture rich red blood which feeds the heart—nerves—brain and organs of the body. The organs work smoothly like machinery running in oil. You feel clean, strong and strenuous instead of tired, weak and faint. Start to take it to-day and before another day has passed, the impurities of the blood will begin to leave your body through the eliminative organs, and in a few days you will know that the bad blood is passing out, and new, rich, pure blood is filling your veins and arteries.

HUNDREDS WILL TESTIFY RIGHT HERE IN OHIO.

Springfield, Ohio.—"I used 'Golden Medical Discovery' as a tonic and building-up medicine. I was run-down so that I weighed 75 lbs. less than usual. I was tired-out and suffering. I learned of 'Golden Medical Discovery' through a booklet left at the door, and used three bottles of 'Discovery.' I began to build up and get stronger and now have my usual weight and strength back again," —MRS. MAUD HAINES, 17 No. Shaffer St.

For all diseases peculiar to women, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a powerful restorative. During the last 20 years it has banished from the lives of tens of thousands of women the pain, worry, misery and distress caused by irregularities and diseases of a feminine character.

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the fingers tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once and your hair will be fluffy, strong, oily and soft and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

Milady's Boudoir

There is no greater foe to beauty than dandruff, for with insufficient hair or thin hair, beauty is impossible, even though one has most beautiful face. The acid, say physicians, in their endeavor to escape from the system is responsible for a very unpleasant and harmful form of dandruff. A careful watch has shown that many sufferers from uric acid rheumatism are troubled with the moist, greasy, flake form of dandruff which, if neglected, is fatal to the health and well-being of the hair.

In very bad cases this is yellow in hue, sticks to the hair like fish scales and leaves a red, angry surface when dissolved. To reduce uric acid a regime is necessary, depending on the individual case and prescribed by a physician. For local treatment get rid of the scales, but do this in such a way as not to injure the delicate hair roots. Continue by rubbing the entire scalp gently with sweet oil or vaseline, leaving a little of this on the entire scalp, or over the patches, if the dandruff forms in that way, over night. In the morning give the head a vigorous shampoo with a pure soap and rinse very carefully, using the hair spray and first warm and then hot water. This will invigorate the scalp and bring a new supply of blood to the surface. After the hair is dry you will find a considerable portion, if not all, of the dandruff has disappeared.

Now give the scalp a vigorous daily shampoo, using the tips of the fingers and taking care not to scratch the scalp with the nails. For this massage keep the fingers lubricated with sweet oil or vaseline, and if the hands are hot wet the fingers with cold water. As often as the dandruff gathers repeat the oil treatment, follow by a shampoo.

Markets

Wall Street
 ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM
 New York, March 22.—Special stocks, more particularly the war group, were again singled out for sale at the opening of today's market, while shares of the representative classes were comparatively firm. Bethlehem Steel yielded five points and one to two point losses were scored by Baldwin Locomotive, Crucible Steel, Tennessee Copper, Industrial Alcohol, Butte and Superior and American Zinc. New York Central and Chesapeake and Ohio were the only strong features among the rails and United States Steel held at yesterday's final price. Specialties rallied later, with strength in Marine Preferred.

Heaviness of leading industrials and equipments, especially United States Steel, Crucible Steel and Baldwin Locomotive provoked fresh selling on the rally. Petroleums were adversely affected by reports of further revolutionary disturbances in Mexico and high price specialties declined abruptly on moderate offerings. General Chemical fell 20 to 320. General Motors 10 to 475 and South Porto Rico Sugar 4 to 136.

Deals were lighter than usual and more narrow. Anglo-French five's manifested increased strength but exchange to the Teutonic countries was again weak. Bonds were steady.

Specialties, including oils and motors, rose 2 to 4 points on short covering the final hour. The closing was firm.

After some early hesitation stocks made general recoveries today from yesterday's lowest prices.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Chicago, March 22.—Fears of a late spring in the northwest and of a delayed movement there had a bullish effect today on wheat. Peas talk, however, acted later as something of an offset. The fact that Liverpool reported arrivals liberal with most of the buying controlled by the government tended also to check upturns in prices.

The close was unsettled, 14 to 3-8 to 1-2 to 5-8 net lower, with May at 1.03 1-2 to 5-8 and July at 1.07 1-2.

The opening here which varied from 1-8 to 3-4 to 7-8 higher with May at 1.09 1-4 to 1.09 5-8, and July at 1.08 1-4 to 1.08 5-8 was followed by a slight further advance and then a material reaction.

Corn weakened owing to lack of support. Wheat strength operated only as a temporary prop. After opening 1-8 to 1-4 to 3-8 higher, the market sagged to below yesterday's finish.

The close was weak at 1 1-8 to 1-4 to 1-8 net decline. Oats paralleled the changes in corn. Selling pressure, though, was not heavy.

Steadiness characterized provisions, the recent buying enthusiasm as to lard seemed to have come to a halt.

In the late trading, sales of lard were heavy, and as a result the whole provision market declined.

YANKEE CONSUL IN VILLA STRONGHOLD

Marion Letcher.

Marion Letcher, U. S. consul, has been on the job in Chihuahua city, the center of Villa's activity, ever since President Wilson gave the order to "take Villa, dead or alive." He is in the interior at a point from which egress would be difficult in case of actual danger. Mr. Letcher has been in Mexico as U. S. consul five years. Although he is only 34 years old he was a company commander in Cuba during the Spanish-American war.

In proportion to its size, Monaco produces a richer royal revenue than any other country.

Nearly all the European monarchs are shorter in size than their wives.

A SURE GERM KILLER

Druggists here are selling hyclorite, a wonderfully effective antiseptic and germ killer. It is powerful, yet absolutely safe, because it is not an acid and cannot stain or blister. It simply acts quickly in all cases of infection. Too much care cannot be given to scratches, bruises, or hurts. Hyclorite should be in every home and applied quickly when accidents occur. It is pure, dependable, and can be used.

SWIFT FIGURES PUT MEAT AS UNCLE SAM'S CHOICE

COLLEGE GIRLS

Figures concerning the meat appetite of the United States given in Swift & Company's year book show that we are a nation of meat eaters, and that the price of meat is the food problem which most concerns the American family.

Louis F. Swift, president of Swift & Company, discussed the wholesale price of beef during 1915 in his statement to the stockholders' meeting in Chicago recently. He said: "In 1915 we paid the stock raiser more for cattle, while selling beef to the retailers at a lower price. The wholesale selling price of beef sold in the principal cities during 1915 was $11.46 per hundredweight, and during 1914 $12.13 per hundred." From this it will be seen that the wholesale price of beef averaged less during 1915 than 1914.

Mr. Swift stated as a fundamental principle of success for this business:

"I want to reiterate that the packer, more than anyone else, wants to see the producer succeed, and at the

THE Y. M. C. A. AND THRIFT MOVEMENT

The Y. M. C. A. is doing much to promote thrift among its members and the young men of the community. General Secretary Frank L. Johnson states that a large number of the boys who belong to the local Association are keeping up some kind of a saving account. It is a very common thing to hear a boy say, "you know I have a money club, and I must keep that up." This movement among the boys is much of saving grace as the carelessness expenditure of money among boys is a great detriment to their lives. Recklessness gets a severe blow when a boy begins to save. One of the questions that is nearly always asked by an employer is, "how does he spend his money and his spare time?" The following is reported from another Y. M. C. A.: "A wealthy young man whose father had cut off his income and support because he had become such a spendthrift was induced to put $5 a month in the co-operative bank, which in a few years aroused his ambition to save to such an extent that he "made good" and won the respect of his father again, who took him back into the family."

WOMAN HAD NERVOUS TROUBLE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her.

West Danby, N. Y.—"I have had nervous trouble all my life until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for nerves and for female troubles and it straightened me out in good shape. I work nearly all the time, as we live on a farm and I have four girls. I do all my sewing and other work with their help, so it shows that I stand it real well. I took the Compound when my ten year old daughter came and it helped me a lot. I have also had my oldest girl take it and it did her lots of good. I keep it in the house all the time and recommend it."—Mrs. DEWITT SINCEBAUGH, West Danby, N. Y.

PAVING IMPORTANT IN SANITARY CONQUEST OF CANAL ZONE

LAYING BRICK STREET in CITY OF PANAMA.

Panama and Colon now have modern pavements on very important thoroughfare, laid by United States engineers. The question of material gave some concern, as the surface must withstand extremes of temperature and must never be soft enough to permit the adhesion of feet. Sanitary conditions must, above everything else, be maintained. Choice in most cases fell upon vitrified brick, laid on a concrete base with a cement grout fiber.

An entirely new view of the potentialities of the town has been afforded by the success of Surgeon General William C. Gorgas in making Panama a healthy place to live. There is no reason, he says, why the Congo and Amazon valleys must remain comparatively unused by civilized men. It is a simple matter of money and energy to make both of these trackless regions perfectly safe for human habitation and the results would immensely more than repay the outlay. From these two regions, says Dr. Gorgas, more foodstuff could be secured than is now produced in the entire world and with less effort.

Lancaster Folks Try "Outside" Method of Treating Colds

Now They Recommend an Application of Vick's Vap-O-Rub Salve Instead of Internal Dosing.

H. E. Mayer, Lancaster, writes:—"I can say that I have used Vick's Vap-O-Rub Salve for colds in the head and chest and find that it breaks up a cold in two or three applications."

Mr. Martin Wyman, 532 N. Columbus Street, writes:—

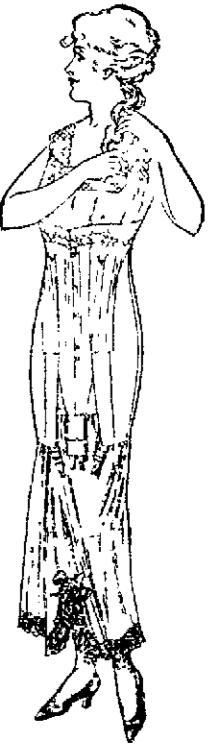

"Last December I took a severe cold that seemed to stay in my throat and made me hoarse for two months. Nothing seemed to do any good, so my druggist, H. W. Brink, asked me to try a jar of your salve. I rubbed it well over my throat and chest, covering with hot flannels and in two days I was relieved and in a week the hoarseness was all gone."

Vick's Vap-O-Rub comes in salve form and combines two forms of treatment. First, the body heat releases the ingredients in the form of vapors, that are inhaled with each breath all night long, loosening the phlegm and clearing the air passages. Second, externally, Vick's Vap-O-Rub is absorbed through the skin, acting like a poultice or plaster. Vick's Vap-O-Rub comes in three sizes, 25c, 50c or $1.00, at all druggists.

THIN FOLKS TURN FOOD INTO FLESH

Report Weight Increases of Ten To Twenty-five Pounds When Sargol Was taken With Daily Meals.

If you are thin, rundown and under normal weight and would like to put on from ten to twenty-five pounds of good healthy flesh you must make your meals do you more good than they are doing now.

Flesh, fat and muscular tissue must come from the food you eat but if your organs of assimilation are defective and you lack the power to turn food into flesh and fat much of the good of your meals must leave your body as waste.

If you are ten pounds or more underweight try eating a Sargol tablet with every meal and take another just before going to bed and try to see if this is true in your case. Weigh yourself before you begin and each ten days thereafter. Do this for sixty days and and note the difference. Don't guess at results. Let the scales tell their story. Reported gains of from ten to twenty-five pounds and even more from this plan are by no means infrequent. Yet the action is perfectly natural and entirely harmless.

Sargol is a splendidly balanced combination of assimilative aids designed to increase the nourishment you obtain from your food and so to make your food develop healthy fat, flesh and muscular tissue between your skin and bones. Can be obtained from Evans Drug Co., W. A. Erman, 33 N. 3rd street or leading druggists everywhere and each large package contains a guarantee of satisfaction or money back on sixty days use.

Keep Uric Acid Out of Joints

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Eat Less Meat and Take Salts.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly, keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water.

Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which helps overcome uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

KIDNEY DISORDERS QUICKLY RELIEVED

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly, keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water.

Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which helps overcome uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

For three years she was principal of one of the Licking county high schools. Her special work is in mathematics and Latin. Solvax is considered the best kidney remedy on the market today because it aims to cure by striking directly at the cause of all the trouble.

The many pains and aches caused by improperly working kidneys cannot be permanently cured unless the cause is removed.

Solvax is sold under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. This is the strongest proof that can be offered as to the merit of the medicine.

You are cheating yourself out of your life if you don't give Solvax a chance.

Bowser-Burns Match Friday Promises to Equal Turner Go; More About that Gazette Belt

Further evidence that Joe Turner was the holder of the Police Gazette belt, was winner of the same and that the publishers of the Police Gazette acknowledged the same, was obtained by the Advocate today.

Fred Brower, of south Third street, and interested follower of wrestling has been watching the work of ex-champion Joe Turner, for the past 12 years. He has saved all the issues of Gazette papers which carried pictures of Turner and also of the belt now held by Bowser, with the announcement that it was the Police Gazette belt.

"A supplement to the National Police Gazette," No. 10, Saturday, September 28, 1912, is the title of the picture is the following in large black type: "Joe Turner of Washington, D. C., Champion Middleweight Wrestler of the United Holders of the Police Gazette Belt."

A great many fans called the Advocate by phone Tues. evening and today regarding the story which appeared in last night's issue of the Advocate.

BIG FIGHT WILL BE BULLETINED BY THE ADVOCATE

Mr. fight fan—are you interested in the coming world's championship heavyweight bout between Jess Willard, the champion, and Frank Moran, the challenger? Would you like to have portrayed for you—a picture of the tremendous crowd that will attend the bout; the introduction of the principals; when they enter the ring; their weights, and all the preliminaries engaged in before bouts of this character?

If you are interested, be in front of the Advocate office at 8:30 on the evening of Friday, March 25, and you will enjoy the fight nearly as well as if you were at the ringside.

The Advocate by means of its ASSOCIATED PRESS wire will receive the detail of the fight by rounds and each will be posted on a bulletin in the office window. The Advocate wire will be direct from the ringside and the story of the fight will be handled by ? ? ? one of the Associated Press fight experts.

The bout is scheduled to begin promptly at 9:30 eastern time, 8:30 Newark time. In addition to the bulletins furnished by the Advocate, the fans can secure information of the fight by calling Citizens phone 1333 or Bell Main 59-3.

The Willard-Moran fight, while only a ten round affair, is considered to greatest event of its kind staged the greatest event of its kind staged. The purse is the largest ever offered for ten rounds, and of the seat sale is placed at more than $100,000. Moran, the challenger, on account of his size has a great job on his hands, if he disposes of the very giant Willard, the champion, is the favorite in the betting on account of his great reach and weight.

HEAVYWEIGHTS WELL SATISFIED WITH CONDITIONS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

New York, March 22.—With their ten round fight over, the heavyweights, Willard and Moran are satisfied with the conditions of the bout, and the results of their arduous exertions. Perfunctory road work of the highest kind was in order this morning at 5 a.m., a couple of startings about 5 to 6 o'clock after a long walk down to the station where the training program of both men began.

Moran still insists that he is perfectly capable of winning. The Moran folks say that Frank has cycled half a mile with a record fast pace, and that the champion is in top form.

Followed in the official statement by the supervising physician of the state medical commission, Dr. W. J. Moran, who were in perfect condition, there has been increased interest in the betting circles. The claim of Moran's position as a three-to-one favorite at these figures has not been denied by bucking Moran.

Two of the challenger's opponents, a big and a knock-out, are favorite but they believe that Moran can stay ten rounds with the title. Goldie will receive a majority verdict from the experts, and will be several rounds deeper in the ring.

A Willard contingent, however, scoffed at such a possibility, pointing to the fact that the champion's last two opponents, however, had been beaten out by Moran.

Willard's rating is not within the last 12 months. He has grown larger and stronger and steady in the arithmetic and bearing that he always has. The heavy weight championship of the world is the most contested of the laurels from the negro. He was rated different and always difficult to oppose in the opinions of those who know him in the racing field. While he is still in the wayward period of his career, he is in a confidence of comes with some.

In spite of the inclement weather the auditorium was well filled. The meeting began with an inspiring song service under the leadership of Chorister Arkley, followed by preaching by the evangelist. Mr. Arkley drove the truth home with great force. His subject was "Workers, Shirkers and Jerks." It was a scathing denunciation of the lazy, careless, indifferent church member. He said there was too great a tendency in the church today to let the other fellow do all the work. He was witty in the extreme and kept his audience in good humor with his keen and caustic remarks. He was the happy faculty of cutting deep and then applying a soothing balm of humor. The song service was inspiring, a special feature of it being the singing by Mr. Arkley of one of his new songs, "Dearer Than All." Tonight Mrs. G. K. Ackley and Chorister Arkley will sing a duet. Those who have heard her pronounced her voice one of unusual sweetness. The crowds are growing and those who desire a

WILD DUCKS PLENTIFUL AT BUCKEYE LAKE

Ex-State Fire Marshal Emmet R. Deffenbaugh will attend the "Old First Night" celebration at the Elk club rooms this evening and the banquet which will follow at the new K. of P. hall in West Main street. Mr. Deffenbaugh, who with Capt. Dell Fisher has leased Buckeye Lake Park, is located at Lancaster but will soon take up his residence at the famous Ohio resort and where he expects to make many improvements.

Captain Fisher will also be present this evening to meet his brother Elks and distinguished visiting guests. He is located at the Glass Hotel at the lake, which property was recently acquired by Messrs. Deffenbaugh and Fisher. The Glass hotel is undergoing extensive improvements and will be operated as the park resort hotel this season the old park hotel being remodeled into an interurban waiting room with a first class restaurant on the second floor.

The ice is nearly all off the lake and the fishing this spring should be excellent, as the waters have been stocked regularly with young fish for the last several years.

Ducks are also plentiful, but the nimrods are not bagging them on account of the federal laws which forbid their slaughter at this time of the year.

Captain Fisher stated this morning that all the ice went out of the lake yesterday and that there were more ducks on the waters than had been seen at the lake in a great many years. He said the fact that they are not allowed to be slaughtered kept them in a less wild stage and there being no blinds on the water this season accounted for the great number of water fowl this spring.

Granville

[Special to The Advocate]

Granville, March 22.—A dozen people were invited last night to the dress rehearsal of the comic opera to be staged in the Opera House tonight and tomorrow night, and everything went merry as a marriage bell. Costumes in this burlesque range from the gracefully classic to the ultra modern, and there is some rapid-fire repartee among the gods and demi-gods of high Olympus, which will not be lost, especially on the student of mythology. One must remember that great Zeus or Jupiter had an eye for beauty and a facility in disguises that Sherlock Holmes has tried in vain to imitate—stated Juno's complaints of her lord seem to have had more than a basis of foundation. Pluto, the god of the underworld, is a rollicking demon with undeniable charm, who has carried Eurydice to his dominions. In the real opera, Orpheus, the greatest musician the world has ever known, whose skill on the lyre (of either spelling) was so great that he could move the hearts and emotions of men and gods to do his will, and could even turn savage beasts with his music, so loved his beautiful wife that he made a journey to the lower regions in order to rescue her and to bring her back to earth. He overcomes incredible obstacles in reaching the "abodes of the blessed dead"—by means of his music. He obtains the grudging concession from Pluto that if he can escort Eurydice back to earth without one backward glance at her—she shall be his—otherwise—back she goes to the Elysian fields. Charon, the ferryman, seems to have abandoned his chilly costume in favor of modern dress and in the character of John Styx seems to be engaged in an effort to drink the "Lethe dry," the magic waters which are supposed to "drown sorrow." There are pretty girls in the chorus, whose costumes are graceful and becoming, and mingling freely with Neptune, Pluto, Mars and other Olympians are some demi-gods in real Greek costume. The music is first class, the choruses given with excellent precision of attack and volume of tone. The orchestra accompanies both soloists and choruses in fine style and the effect is enlivening and inspiring.

At the inter-fraternity basket ball games in Cleveland hall last evening, the Betas engaged the Sigs and scored a pleasing victory—after which the Sycamores walked away with the Phi Gams.

The Denison track team will go to Athens on Saturday.

The Scientific Association will hold a meeting this evening in Science Hall, under the direction of the Chemical department.

The funeral of Mrs. Martin L. Bricker, whose death occurred on Tuesday morning at the home in the Lancaster road, will be held on Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the Methodist church. Mrs. Margaret Hazard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bricker, who started from her home in Idaho, will arrive in Granville Thursday night.

There will be a meeting of the Home and School association in the Baptist church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. All interested are urged to be present.

Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth, and let all the sons and daughters of men bare their heads and "stop, look and listen!" For it is known and remembered, that ex-President William H. ## KERN CASE IS TAKEN UNDER ADVISEMENT

JUDGE T. B. FULTON WILL ANNOUNCE HIS DECISION ON BAIL APPLICATION.

News From the Common Pleas and Probate Courts—Four Divorce Cases Filed in Letter.

In the common pleas court on Wednesday the court heard the testimony and the arguments of counsel in the matter of the application of A. O. Kern to admit him to bail. The court took the matter under advisement and will announce a decision hereafter.

Kern was represented by his attorneys, L. C. Russell and B. G. Smythe while the state was represented by Prosecutor Horner. The defendant seeks bail pending the grand jury examination on an arson and murder charge growing out of the hotel fire in this city January 6, 1914, in which five lodgers lost their lives.

Frederick M. Black, administrator, vs. Mary J. Rankin: a suit to constitute certain provisions in a will and also for authority to plaintiff to sell certain real estate. An order was made by the court to appraise the real estate described in the petition, and the court appointed F. L. Orr, W. A. Morton and Jess Orr as appraisers.

Divorce Petitions Filed.

Four applications were filed in probate court today by wives who have found marriage a failure. Three were for divorce and one for permanent alimony.

Minnie Ridenhour asks that she be given a decree from John Ridenhour on the grounds of failure to provide and drunkenness for more than three years past. They were married Nov. 15, 1905.

Mary H. Swick, in a petition filed against Elmer J. Swick, alleges that her husband has failed to provide for herself and their four-year-old child. She also charges cruelty stating that the defendant frequently assaulted her by striking her with his fist and that he is guilty of adultery. She claims he abandoned her June 26, 1915. They were married August 4, 1909.

Cora J. Wagers asks for permanent alimony from Frank Wagers. They were married October 30, 1908, and are the parents of two children, aged eight and four years. Plaintiff alleges that her husband drove her from home last Sunday night at the point of a revolver; that he has struck her and beat her on numerous occasions and has failed to provide for herself and their children, although he had a good position.

Lottis M. Stricklin in a divorce petition against Charles A. Stricklin, alleges that defendant is guilty of cruelty and gross neglect of duty. They were married July 11, 1911, and have one child four years old, the plaintiff claiming that her husband kidnapped the baby and that he is living in adultery with another woman. She prays that she be decreed a divorce, alimony and the care, custody and control of the child.

Marriage License.

John M. Conn, a gardener and Miss Ruth V. Hanks, both of this city, Rev. Calvin G. Hazlett named to officiate.

Adjudged Insane.

Mrs. Mae Baughman of Fallsburg township was adjudged insane in probate court today and ordered committed to the state hospital at Columbus. She will be taken there as soon as she recovers from an illness which she has experienced in the last few days. Drs. J. P. H. Stedem and W. B. Nyce were the attending physicians.

RAILROAD NEWS.

Efficiency Wins Position.

Efficiency and a conscientious endeavor to serve his employers to the best of their interests, has won for Harry Shield, South Fifth street, the position of piece work price lister over four departments of the local Baltimore and Ohio shops. Mr. Shield who has been with the company for the past twelve years, on February 1, was promoted to his new position.

Heretofore the shop men were adverse to piece work and there was considerable trouble among them whenever a move was made to institute the method in the local shops. A few years ago piece work was adopted here on a small scale, but it was not until recently that the new scale was looked upon with favor by the employees.

When Mr. Shield first joined the piece work department of the company in February, the shop he now has charge of, were working less than 1 per cent piece work. Today it has increased to 25 per cent. Mr. Shield ranks third in the piece work department on this division only two men being over him, the head of the department in Baltimore, Md., and a local general inspector.

"We gave him two bottles of Nerv-Worth and he got better at once.

If a child of the reader is in the shape the little Dudley boy was in, the above amounts to a message of striking value.

Contract for Mikados.

President A. W. Wheatley, of the Lima Locomotive Corporation, returned tonight from New York City and announced that the Pennsylvania railroad had just closed a contract with him for twenty-five Mikado type super-heated engines, to be constructed at once. President Wheatley entered a bid upon fifty locomotives and obtained half. The contract amounts to more than $500,000.

BRIGHTER CHILDREN

Children are probably brighter to-day than a generation ago—but are they stronger? That's a grave question. So many pinched faces, dulled eyes and languid feelings make us wonder if they will ever grow into robust, healthy men and women.

If your children catch colds easily, are tired when rising, lack healthy color, or find studies difficult, give them Scott's Emulsion for one month to enrich their blood and restore the body-forces to healthy action.

Scott's Emulsion is used in private schools. It is not a "patent medicine", simply a highly concentrated oil-food, without alcohol or harmful drugs. It cannot harm; it improves blood; it benefits lungs and strengthens the system. Your druggist has it—refuse substitutes.
